WHAT'S IN FOR ME?

Living in times of crisis and change, our master's degree in European Studies helps you to analyse, evaluate and influence the policymaking process of the European Union. Our interdisciplinary lens focuses on a political, sociological and economic or cultural perspective. It puts special emphasis on key analytical skills and the self-organised application of academic and soft skills. Think critically about today's challenges and develop practical solutions with us in Magdeburg.

STRUCTURE AND MAIN OBJECTIVES

Two focal areas

- European Social and Economic Policy Analysis
- European Social and Cultural Policy Analysis

Main objective

- In depth disciplinary knowledge (based on BA) and extended interdisciplinary skills
- Ability to transfer content of policy analysis to applied use (transfer module + team project)
